THIS ALMOST MIRACULOUS CURES made by Hampton's Vegetable Tincture on our most respectable citizens—men well known and tried—we challenge the world to show anything on record in medicine to equal it. Among hundreds who have felt its healing powers bear the same testimony.

BALTIMORE, July 6, 1862.

Mrs. Mortimer & Mowbray: Baltimore, Last September 1 I was attacked with erysipelas, the disease at first formed on my right leg. Getting better of this, last November I took a deep cold, which led to what my physician told me was bilious pleurisy, which in medicine is equalled by a congested, and painful cough, having no rest day or night, and constantly throwing up from my lungs a thick matter, because it could enaculate, growing weaker every day, and keeping me but the greater part of the time in bed. My friends thought I had the consumption, and at times I was also of the same opinion. At this stage of my disease, after having tried all the remedies in medicine, I was advised by a friend to try DR. HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE, and procured me a bottle, which I now pronounce the greatest medicine I have ever used. I took it at first, the contents of one bottle I felt much improved; and now, having taken but two bottles, my cough and pain have entirely left me, and I am on my feet to do business. I can now sleep the blessing of God, I feel, and am restored to the health I now enjoy by the use of this most invaluable medicine.

Yours,
WESLEY ROCK,
Schroeder, near Sanson's street.

Truth stranger than Fiction!—None need despair!—
A Lady's Testimony after thirty-eight years of suffering!

Were there not real virtue in this wonderful medicine, could it perform the astonishing cures made by it?

Mrs. Tyler & Adair: I have been afflicted with Rheumatism, at times, from my twelfth year; I will be fifty years of age the 18th of this month; the attacks were at times so severe that I have been obliged to use the various remedies to very little effect. Last October I was attacked in my shoulders, elbows, back, and hips; I could not rest day or night; I could not move my body; my bed was my only refuge with pain; at this time I also tried many remedies, internal and external, without receiving any relief; I was at last advised to try H. A. V. Tincture, I took it, and before I had taken one bottle of which I felt much better, and as I continued taking it I felt strength coming into my back and limbs, and my stomach strengthened and revived; every way, I have taken it by bottle, and in much better than I ever expected to be. I intend to use it whenever I need it, and would recommend it to the afflicted, believing it unequalled.

Yours,
ELIZABETH BAGWELL.

REV. VERNON ESKINDE, U. S. N.

PORTSMOUTH, (Va.) Aug. 18, 1851.

Mr. J. E. Bush:—Dear Sir: While I am in general opposition to Patent Medicines, I feel compelled to state that I have great confidence in the virtues of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. For several months past I have used it in the most judicious manner, and with the greatest success. I am cured of general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends, therefore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted as a safe and efficient remedy.

I am, respectfully, yours,
VERNON ESKINDE,
Chaplain in the U. S. Navy.

KRAUSER'S PATENT GLOVE-SEED HARVESTER.

IS BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR THE FIRST TIME.
ITS utility is beyond comparison with any other farming implement now in use. It takes the seed from the field leaving the straw or grass all standing. It weighs two hundred and fifty pounds, is drawn by one horse, and gathers from ten to twelve acres per day. The fingers, or teeth catch all the heads, the revolving knives cut them off and leave the straw with the head of cotton. One acre is worked in five minutes without emptying. The heads are then loaded into a wagon and taken directly to the mill for cleaning thus diminishing the labor three-fourths, and saving all the seed, and answers all the most hardy farmers who have it, and pays the manufacturer 300 per cent.
E. WHEELER, Agent for Washington.

CROES KEYS, WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP, CAMDEN CO., N. J., September 4, 1851.

We, the undersigned, do certify that we have seen Mr. Krauser's Patent Glove Harvester in operation, and we are fully satisfied. It has gathered more wheat than given farmers credit in this neighborhood—it is said that Mr. Krauser and his bills represent it to be. The Farmers have given one-half for gathering and threshing.

JAMES D. TIMMERMAN, JOSEPH DEWALD,
WILLIAM F. GARWOOD, JOHN F. COOK,
WM. C. SINGMASTER, JAMES H. COOK,
JAMES COLLINS, JAMES EWYSON,
CHARLES LEWIS, PETER H. JONES,
THOMAS TOMBLETON.

It is to certify that Mr. G. C. Naylor has gathered clover of a sixteen-acre field of mine, which he has pastured with a cow until the end of October. He has gathered six bushels and a half and one peck of seed. I gave him two thirds for gathering and cleaning. I think his machine is first-rate, and answers all the most hardy farmers who have it.
NEMEHIAH NICHOLSON.

The following points out the profitable nature of the Harvester:

KRAUSER'S PATENT GLOVE-SEED HARVESTER.
We have conversed with a number of Farmers, and they are of opinion that there are at least 3,000 acres in each township in Camden or Gloucester county, New Jersey. Adapting the above harvester to the culture of clover, which grows in 1½ to 3 bushels. Reducing it to a certainty of yielding at least 1 bushel per acre, what will it cost to gather and thresh 3,000 acres?
The Harvester will gather 12 acres per day. At 8 acres per day, it will take 5 harvesters 25 days, at a cost of _____ $150
Money costs the farmer 5¢ per bushel. 3,000 bushels = 150 dollars. Incidental expensess, _____ 150
Cost of harvesting, &c., 1,000 acres, _____ $500
Terms of gathering, 50¢ per share of one-half, which will leave from the above calculation in the hands of the farmer 300 shares 50¢ bushels, selling it at $3 per bushel would amount to $1,500; deducting expenses at 50¢ per bushel would leave a balance in the hands of the gatherer of $2,500.
In a county where there are but 3 towns, deduct 5 ¢ multiply the $2,500 by it and it becomes $125.
From the numerous farmers with whom we have consulted, we have found them to agree unanimously with the above calculations.
Perhaps no invention offers greater inducements for so profitable investment than the Harvester. For an enterprising young man, of good business habits, a large sum of money could be made with it. To a man of genius, while engaged in the difficult enterprises of the Union not yet disposed of, or by calling at this office, it can be demonstrated satisfactorily that the Harvester's capital could not choose a better investment than money-paying to himself.
Those who wish to see a model of this celebrated farming implement, and the satisfactory manner in which it operates, may do so by the aid of E. WHEELER, Opposite Brown's Hotel, No. 114.

Affairs in Georgetown.
GEORGETOWN, July 24—12 m.
Officer John Adams, having received from George S. Allan, secretary to the mayor of Baltimore, a communication informing him that the lady who was in our city a few days back in search of her child, which was stolen from her, and returned home without succeeding in finding it, and requesting him to be on the look-out, has been indefatigable in his efforts to ascertain his whereabouts, if in the District. Last night he was wandering about our streets a small boy, 7 or 7 years old, light hair, and face much freckled. He says his name is Titus Johnson, and at his mother's name is Mary Johnson, a widow, and lives on Gay street, Baltimore. He so says that he was deceived off by a man whose name he did not know, taken from Baltimore to Frederick city, and from there brought to Washington, where the man left him. He was this morning sent to the almshouse to be taken care of.

Several canal boats, with flour and other produce, arrived yesterday and this morning. Our market was abundantly supplied this morning with fine meats, vegetables, &c. The following are some of the prices: Best cuts of beef, 4 cents per pound; mutton, 8 @ 10c.; lamb, 4 @ 75c. per quarter; veal, 10 @ 12½c. per pound; hams, 14 @ 15c.; butter, 20 @ 25c.; eggs, 12 @ 15c. per doz.; chickens, $3 @ $3.75; potatoes, @ 31c. per peck; tomatoes, 25 @ 37c.; apples, @ 25c., cabbage from 3 to 12½c. per head; melons, 12½c. per doz.; cucumbers, 12½c.; green peas, 25c.; beets, 3 @ 5c. per bunch; watermelons, 24 @ 37½c.; pears, 25c. per peck; other fruits and vegetables at about the same rates.

A temperance meeting will be held in our market-house to-morrow afternoon, at 5 o'clock. Addresses will be delivered by Mr. Abbott and others.

The colored Methodists of the District and Alexandria intend holding a camp-meeting on the 2d of Mr. Pierce a few miles north of this place, to commence on the 13th of August.

A temperance jubilee is to be held in Fairfax county, Virginia, near the Leesburg turnpike bridge, on the 7th of August. A handsome banner will be presented to Langly Division Sons Temperance by the ladies. ELECTRO.

The Bunch of Grapes.
Edward, on returning home after taking a walk on a fine day in the beginning of autumn, saw a basket filled with beautiful bunches of grapes on the parlor table; some were deep red, and some light yellow, like amber.
"Oh! where did these fine grapes come from?" cried Edward, quite delighted, "and whose are they?"
"They belong to you, dear Edward," said his mother, "for your grandfather, hearing that you were not very well, sent them to you with love. He says they are some of the first grapes that have ripened in his green-house."
"How very good, grandfather is!" said Edward. "I will write to him without delay, and thank him. Oh! if I could give him any pleasure, how happy it would make me!"
"I am glad you feel so grateful," said his mother, "but what would you say if you had a friend who would not only send you grapes, but all sorts of nice fruit? Would you not be thankful to him as to your kind grandfather?"
"Yes, certainly, dear mother; I would thank him with all my heart, and try every means in my power to please him."
"But if this good friend," continued his mother, "were to send you a thousand other things, not merely agreeable and useful, but absolutely necessary to your existence, and which you could not get except from him?"
"Then," replied Edward, "I would be more grateful to him than I can tell you, mother. I could write long letters to him every day, to thank him for so many gifts; and I am sure I could never cease thinking of what I could do for him, for, oh, how great must be the love of friend who could be so exceedingly kind and generous!"
"And," continued his mother, "what if he would not only send you these presents once, at every day, and every hour, and every minute?"
"Oh, mother! what a wonderful friend he would be!" He must be so rich and powerful, and full of love!"
"And, if, besides all these good gifts," his mother added, "there was another and a far greater sign of his love to you; if, not satisfied with providing for you the comforts and pleasures of this life he had devised a means for giving you joys which should last forever, and exceed all you could imagine; and to do all this, had given his only Son to die a most painful death?"
"Oh! mother," said the child, beginning to shudder at her object, "it would never be possible for me to feel grateful enough for such wonderful love—I should always think of that friend. I could do everything I could to please him; yet still, I could never love him enough."
"No, truly, my child," said his mother, while she pressed his little hand in hers, "and yet you and all of us have such a friend; and one who never weary of doing good, and of renewing his gifts. He causes the fruit from year to year to swell and ripen on the trees, so that we and all creatures may not only live, but rejoice in our being. If you are thus thankful to your earthly friend for a single gift, how much more thankful should you be to our Father in heaven, for his innumerable blessings."
